

2021 SHORT BIO

Carl Elefante FAIA FAPT

Carl Elefante is Principal Emeritus with Quinn Evans where he served as design principal on architecture, historic preservation, and community revitalization projects. Known for coining the phrase: "The greenest building is...one that is already built", Carl writes and lectures internationally on historic preservation, sustainable design, climate change, and urban topics.

Carl is a Senior Fellow with Architecture 2030, on the board of the Climate Heritage Network (CHN), and Adjunct Professor at The Catholic University of America and the University of Maryland. In 2018, Carl served as President of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and was elected to the College of Fellows of AIA and the Association for Preservation Technology International (APT).
